Walk into the interior Garden Courtyard of the Sheraton Atlanta Hotel, and you might forget what city you're in. Greenery and wrought-iron balconies overlook a half-acre of poolside lounge/event space that has a distinctively New Orleans-type feel. Thanks to a retractable roof, the venue is available to planners year-round. The property has a number of eco-friendly initiatives in place, including using saline, rather than chlorine, to keep the pool clean.
